

A GOOD LOCAL INVESTMENT.

Chicago Daily Tribune (1872-1922); Sep 23, 1877; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Tribune
pg. 5

A GOOD LOCAL INVESTMENT.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, Henry Greenebaum & Co. are offering to investors at 103 and accrued interest 7 per cent West Chicago Park bonds, due in 1890, the interest payable semi-annually. Of these bonds Mr. Post, of New York, says: "We recommend them as one of the very best and cheapest issues of first-class bonds now in the market." The credit of the Town of West Chicago is irrevocably pledged to secure the payment of the interest and principal of these bonds. The validity of the law under which they were issued has been passed on by the Supreme Court, and therefore there can be no question as to the soundness of these securities, and it is impossible to see what can hereafter depreciate their value. Any further information concerning these excellent bonds can be secured from Henry Greenebaum & Co.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.